TEMPERANCE NOTES.—The last week has been somewhat noteworthy in the number of temperance meetings held in this city. Last night the Reform Club hall was packed, all the standing room was occupied and many went away unable to get in. The usual business was transacted, eight or ten were admitted to membership, and the weekly dues to the amount of six dollars were paid, being two dollars less than the amount paid last week.

After the business was finished the evening session in singing and addresses. Rev. W. K. Bayle and Chas. Nye, esq., were the chief speakers. Mr. Nye stated and argued the proposition that "society is getting tired of being down to the rammer-rammer." He also discussed the question whether society has a right to protect the homes of the people against the men whose business produces indigestion, rheumatism and, and especially dwell upon the subject that the liquor sellers are combining to starve out the people who are opposed to their business.

Mr. Nye also spoke of his fall house on Wednesday afternoon by invitation of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and at the close of his address a sixteen ladies united with the union.

The lecture of Rev. W. H. Boole, of New York, on Tuesday night on the "barbarism and degradation of liquor legislation," was an elaborate discussion of a phase of the subject which has not been so prominent during the past few weeks. The lecture was well attended.

Many of his auditors evidently had no special sympathy with some of his views but none who heard him will soon forget the eloquence of his words.

The general temperance meeting of last Sunday was addressed by Rev. Mr. Murdoch and others. This meeting is always conducted by one of the resident ministers, is largely attended by reformed men and consists usually of singing, prayer and the presentation of religious tracts to the men. The meeting to-morrow will be in charge of Rev. Mr. Bayle.

The Reform Club will furnish free hot coffee lunches on Thanksgiving day. Dr. J. B. Johnson is addressing the club one week from next Friday night.

A SWINDLER'S STRATEGY.—The reported sinking of the schooner W. H. Morcos, of Yorktown, by the steamer San Salvador, off Wolf Trap, Friday night week, mentioned in Tuesday's Gazette turns out to be false, and is believed to be the work of a man who lives by his swindling operations. The captain of this mythical schooner who gave his name as Nelson to the Collector at West Point, was in this city about a month ago endeavoring to obtain money on the same story. He here gave several names, among them Richard H. Robinson, and stated that he was a seaman. He made application for aid to the Marine Relief Committee, but the members believing him to be a swindler declined to grant him any assistance. He then, after making several other efforts to swindle citizens, left for persons unknown, and has not been heard of since.

THE MARKET.—The market this morning presented a rather dull appearance, and owing to the late cold snap prices for dressed poultry, which was in good supply, were a little higher than last Saturday. Prices generally ranged as follows:

Grates $1.00 per lb; apples 20c per peck; sweet potatoes 20c per peck; Irish potatoes 10c per peck; cabbage 20c per head; lettuce 20c per head; turnips 10c per peck; Cane Corn 10c per bushel; sweet corn 10c per bushel; chestnuts 5c per quart; celery 50c per bunch; rabbits 10c per lb; dressed turkeys 15c per lb; live 80c per lb; ducks 70c per pair; geese 75c per pair; dressed chickens 50c per pair; eggs 20c per dozen; butter, market, 30c per lb; roll 25c per lb. The fish market was supplied with a good variety of the finny tribe, with prices to suit customers.

A RISING YOUNG ALEXANDRIAN.—Mr. N. H. Jones, of this city, who left here several years ago to fill a lucrative position in the office of the President of the Union Pacific railroad company, at Green river, Wyoming, has been elected a democratic member of the Legislature of that Territory, by a handsome majority. Mr. Jones ran 200 ahead of his ticket, and was the only democratic elected, which proves that he is as popular in his adopted home as he was in his native city, and it is safe to say that he will fill the position to which he has been elected with honor to himself and credit to his constituents.

READINGS.—We are glad to announce that the young and accomplished Miss Lullie Clay Bagley, of whom we have made mention, has perfected arrangements with the Ladies' Union Bazaar to give one of her charming readings for their benefit on next Friday night. Miss Bagley claims to be highly extolled by the press of the North and South as a gifted and accomplished elocutionist, and we doubt not from the acquaintance we have with her that she is eminently deserving of all that has been said.

PARDONED.—Silas Beach, who was convicted in the Corporation Court July, 1874, of manslaughter, in killing Henry Jones, in the restaurant of Capt. Eli Pett, on Union street, and sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen years, was pardoned recently by the Governor. He returned home yesterday, and reports that all the Alexandrians in the institution, when he left, were well and seemed to be in excellent spirits.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES.—The City Council have failed to elect a school trustee from the 1st ward, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. George Washington, within the time prescribed, the State Board of Education has appointed Mr. T. D. Fendall to that position. The selection is a most admirable one, Mr. F. being in every particular well qualified for the important trust.

IN SEASON.—"The COOK'S JEWELL," "CROWN PRINCE" and other COOKING STOVES, together with a fine assortment of RANGES, and all kinds of PARLOR STOVES are offered at very low prices by STANBURY & BRO., cor. King and Washington sts., McBarney's Building.

THE OUTS FIGHTING FOR THE PLACES OF THE INS.—Many of the best colored men of the city are very indignant at the action of these in attendance at the republican meeting held at Armory Hall, Thursday night, in passing resolutions denouncing the holders of the Federal offices here, whose republicanism, and devotion to party, they say, cannot be truthfully questioned. One colored man said this morning that he had talked with a large number of his friends, and that he and they look upon the action as necessary for a mere fight upon which they did not sympathize; he further declared that the resolutions were not passed, as every body voted for them than men, and that if the sense of the colored men of the city was taken on the question it would be decidedly averse to such action. It is understood that among the callers at the several departments, in Washington one day this week, were Messrs. Edmund Burke, Judge Gray, Spencer A. Coe, B. W. Clark and others, the object of which was to secure for themselves the various little fat places scattered around looms in this, the Eighth district. The following slate, it is rumored, has already been made up: For Postmaster, L. E. Payne; District Attorney, Edmund Burke, vice L. L. Lewis; Special Agent Internal Revenue, Spencer A. Coe, vice Col. Chapman; Collector of Customs at this port, Judge Gray, of Falls Church; Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, B. W. Clark, of Herndon. The ins sit back and laugh at this little arrangement and say that the milk in the cask is accounted for at last, i. e., the unbounded zeal for M. J. Bayle, on the part of the gentlemen named.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There were no cars at police headquarters this morning.

The November term of the County Court will commence Monday next.

The best and largest variety of tobacco, both chewing and smoking, can be found at Mr. J. A. Fields, on King street.

Mr. J. W. Brown, formerly of this city but now living in Charlottesville, was here to day on a short visit to his friends.

The temperature to-day was not as cold as yesterday, but the weather was a mixture of rain, hail, snow and sunshine.

The selection of Mr. V. M. Power as a member of the Conservative Committee by the meeting in the 1st ward Tuesday night last to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Hugh Latham, is looked upon as a good selection.

The captain of the schooner James Ford, which arrived in this city to-day, to the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Co., reports that he picked up at sea a boat 27 feet long, built at Gloucester, Mass.

Miss Mary Fisk's English Blondes will appear at Sarepta Hall on Monday night, and from the large audiences they are drawing in Washington this week it is expected a large audience will greet them here. The troupe consists of fifteen blondes and other talent.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. Shuster & Sons, in another column. They offer a magnificent stock of goods at low prices and invite the readers of the Gazette to call at their store on Pennsylvania Avenue whenever visiting the city.

Mr. F. Pafl, who has lately occupied his handsome new store on the north side of King street, received by this morning's mail, among other orders from a distant one for a bill of goods from San Francisco, Cal. Mr. Pafl is making for himself, by his splendid work, a national reputation.

A colored man was in this city a few days ago selling tickets for a lecture on "the cadet Whitaker mystery," by John P. O. Johnston, to take place at Armory Hall last night. The hall was made ready but the lecturer did not put in an appearance. Those who purchased tickets still hold them, and it is more than probable they will continue to hold them.

Mr. W. F. Creighton, the well known King street druggist, during a two days' hunt in Prince William county, killed four rabbits, four quail partridges and one wild turkey, all of which he tagged and brought home with him. Mr. C. says the two days were not very good ones for killing game either, but it is understood that the citizens of the county don't want him to come there again for another year.
